Bistro Classics		Bistro Classics
Small Plates		Entrees
The Chef's World Class Cheese Course 14.00		Floribbean Grouper, a "Bistro Cookery Classic" 37.00
A selection of the world's best cheeses, painstakingly crafted by the best Artisanal cheesemakers in the world. With housemade toasts and condiments. For a savory beginning plate or perfect dessert alternative.		Gulf grouper filet, crusted with toasted coconut and crushed cashews, pan-seared, oven-finished and caressed with red pepper papaya jam.
Nova Scotia Smoked Salmon 17.00		Bistro Bouillabaisse, Famous 49.00
"The Best in the Free World." Really! From Willie Krauch's Smokehouse in Tangier, Nova Scotia. On parade with capers, domestic caviars and Key lime crème fraiche.		First you hire a bunch of pros to build a killer broth. Poach to order, "Novey" lobster tails, jumbo shrimp, premium marketfish, shellfish and calamari. Served with clever asides of herbed garlic toast and aioli. Martha Stewart cannot do this. Lighter Portion 42.00
Lobsterscargots 19.00		Bistro Choice Aged Tenderloin Market
Lush chunks of Florida spiny lobster (instead of chewy little slugs). Slow baked in a crock with herbed spinach and seasoned garlic butter. Heaven sent.		Bistro Select American Beef. Because we believe the cowboys, not the cows, should be drinking the beer ... Chef Pete and Mac's daily preparation.
Bistro "Kicker" Grilled Jumbo Shrimp 13.00		Rack of Domestic Lamb
The appetizer version. Key West jumbos, grilled with the Bistro "Kicker"-a "light-spicy" grill that "kicks up" the flavor. Served hot, splashed with a Grand Marnier and ginger-citrus reduction.		Simply the world's best, fresh domestic lamb from Iowa and Colorado. Herb-rubbed lamb, pan-seared and oven-roasted, then finished with a port rosemary demi-glace. The taste tells you this lamb has not been frozen and transported across a major ocean in the bottom of a ship. 2 Chops 45.00 3 Chops 55.00 4/5 Chops 65.00
Death by Foie Gras 27.00		Roast Duckling 40.00
Scared Hudson Valley foie gras on a savory brioche bread pudding. Garnished with a vanilla bean and sauternes reduction, nutmeg anglaise and an aged balsamic reduction. Decadent.		Dressed, slow-baked and crisped. With Pepper Sauce - Garnished with our spicy three peppercorn and Cognac demi-glace. With Fruit and Berry Sauces - Served with fresh fruit or berry sauces. Ask your waiter.
Perfect Blue Crab 15.00		Food Heaven 60.00
The perfect blue crab bud is probably the best flavored shellfish anywhere. Beautiful buds of jumbo lump crab meat are lightly seasoned and tossed with champagne vinaigrette. Garnished with crab claws, roasted red pepper coulis and Key lime-chive puree.		Worth dying for. The world's richest food marriage - America's best fresh Iowa lamb crowned with Maine lobster and Hudson Valley foie gras all on a brioche bread pudding, circled with balsamic reduction, nutmeg anglaise and a sauternes reduction with a nuance of four spice. Served with clever asides of asparagus, dauphinoise potatoes and a puddle of port rosemary demi-glace for dipping.
The Gulf Coast "Pas de Deux" 17.00
Big lumps of blue crab dancing with "Kicker" grilled jumbo shrimp. Supported by a symphony of fruit salsa, roasted pepper coulis and Key lime chive puree.
"Toute la Gang" 32.00
A Key West "Canajun" grilled lobster tail and a "first" of blue crab and "Kicker" grilled shrimp. For sharing, the larger appetite or entree alternative.

Interpretation of Songs by

Los Vianor

First Song

LA ZARZAMORA

La Zarzamora was a famous dancer of Seville of the 19th century. All the aristocrats, caballeros and bullfighters offered her their fortunes for her love, but she heeded none until the day she met a dark man with green eyes like emeralds, who melted her heart of ice.

When it seemed that she was the happiest, a woman visited her at the cafe where she danced. And whatever she told Zarzamora, no one knows, except that all her gaiety and fire were gone and only tears were left.

Second Song - First Show

CABALLERO AND GYPSY

When the young, rich caballero met the lovely young gypsy to tell his fortune, it was all in fun. But after she accepted his invitation to his finca, she was never seen in anybody else's company. They lived like gypsies, though he spent his entire fortune on her, and when that was gone, the gypsy left him. He happened to meet her again on the street and he sang to her.

Third Song - First Show

THE BELLS

The bells of Giralda are world famous because in their ringing you notice all the feeling of Andalusia. Their tones tell you of guitars and castanets, of the perfume of orange blossoms and carnations. They tell you of processions and bullfights and even our mother, the Virgin of Hope, smiles when she hears them ringing.

First Song - Second Show

*Pepa, don't you torment me. Pepa, don't hurt me so.
Pepa, only you can help me. Pepa, or my life will go.*

PEPA BANDERA

This song is dedicated to a flower of Southern Spain, who is only in love with her dance and her songs. She boasts with pride that no other flamenca can better her talent and she enjoys being called Pepa Bandera, for this name has made her famous in the whole world. So they sang to her from Loja to Lucena, from Cordoba to Seville, and she listens with gypsy pride while she punctuates the tune with her heels.

Second - Finals

THE BANDIT

From the strain of old bandoleros of Andalusia is this robber of hearts. When two valentinos fight over him he settles their dispute by offering them his arms, and down the plaza they go dancing and singing.
